Dear Madam,

It is noted that according to a Pension Statement your son, the late No. 1526 Fitter H. Harvey, 14th Field Artillery Brigade, enlisted under an assumed name, his correct name being Hector Anderson.

In order that the records of this Branch may be amended I shall be obliged if you will furnish me with a Statutory Declaration setting forth the facts of the case, and that the late soldier's correct name is Hector Anderson, and yours Alice Anderson, not Alice Harvey as recorded by deceased.

Form is enclosed.

Yours faithfully,

Major.

Dear Madam,

I have to acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 26th December, in connexion with your son, the late No. 1526 Fitter H. Harvey, 14th Field Artillery Brigade, and in reply thereto I would advise you that as in many cases difficulties have arisen owing to soldiers having enlisted under assumed names, it has become the practice of the Department, when such cases come under notice, to take steps to have same rectified, in order that the records may be amended.

However, it is noted that you do not desire any alteration to be made in connexion with the records of your son, the abovementioned late soldier.

Yours faithfully,

Major.
