Sir

In reply to your letter dated 16th of November. I wish to inform you that ~~was~~ father of deceased soldier Sgt R. S. Knill (1538) 27th Battalion (S. Knill) is alive and resides at above address.

Personally, I think the wishes of the dead should be respected in these matters as my son in his will states everything he may become possessed of was for me his mother.

I remain
Yours sincerely
R. Knill (Mother)

DESPATCHED

Dear Madam,

I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 11th instant forwarding receipt for one package of personal effects of your son, the late No. 1538 Sergeant R. S. Knill, 27th Battalion, and to state it does not necessarily follow that this includes the whole of the late soldier's effects that may be returned, as on several occasions more than one package has been received in connection with the same member of the A. I. F.

The original Will of your son was forwarded to the District Paymaster, North Terrace, Adelaide, S.A., and it is suggested you communicate with that Officer regarding same, also the late soldier's pay-book, which, if recovered, would also be transmitted thereto.

Identity Discs are often received by this Branch in quantities, and should your son's be included in the consignments now coming to hand, same will be promptly transmitted to you.

In the event of any articles coming to hand later, they will be forwarded to you with as little delay as possible.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. K. Knill,
"Umgeni",
