Report by Commandant Southern Command School of Instruction

Excellent, good N. B. O. who has plenty of confidence and driving power, is of Superior education, and has no difficulties in learning, is of good appearance and tactful. His knowledge should make a good instructor at home or a good leader in the field. He is contently smart, instructs well, and a good example of command and discipline. I have nothing but good to say of him, and a really good knowledge of map reading even under the most confusing circumstances. Sketches very well and accurately, with or without compass and will undoubtedly be of considerable assistance to his officers.
