	DRO 343/1617	LAUDATORY:- On 7/12/17 two horses harnessed to a GS wagon became frightened through a mishap to the break and bolted downhill near RAVELSVERG Railway Crossing. Several attempts were made to stop them, but without avail. Lieut Harrington with great presence of mind hustled some French civilians who were unaware of their danger, off the road, and succeeded at considerable personal risk in seizing the reins. Altho dragged some distance he was successful in running the wagon into a ditch thus bringing the horses to a standstill.		AX 13269.
